

CHATTANOOGA HAS THREE CANDIDATES OUT FOR GOVERNOR

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 24. (Sp.)—In view of the fact that Chattanooga has three candidates for governor, one on the Democratic ticket, Col. W. R. Crabtree, and two on the Republican, Jesse M. Littleton and Maj. Charles R. Evans, the political pot here is beginning to boil and a great deal of interest is being manifested in the race. Col. Crabtree is opposing Gov. Roberts for the Democratic nomination. Col. Crabtree is now campaigning in Middle Tennessee, while his opponent, Gov. Roberts, is working the southern end of the state. Col. Crabtree is very popular in Hamilton county and his friends predict that he will carry the county. However, Gov. Roberts has some friends here and they will make a fight for the county, but the indications are that Crabtree will win out. John R. Neal, who has been qualified as a third candidate for the nomination, was in Chattanooga yesterday en route to San Francisco to attend the Democratic convention. Judge Neal has really never officially announced himself as a candidate but his name was put in the list by friends and it is really not known what he will do, whether he will become an avowed candidate or not. He seems to be just waiting to see which way the wind blows. The Republicans have taken no steps toward making a campaign yet, but it is understood that Maj. Evans, who is now in Wisconsin visiting relatives, is expected to take to the hustings as soon as he returns, and Jesse M. Littleton is expected to open in a short time either at Chattanooga or Knoxville.

23 NEAR-BEER DEALERS ARRESTED IN HUNTSVILLE

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., June 24. (Sp.)—Acting under orders of Judge Robert C. Brickell, of the circuit court, deputies belonging to Sheriff John C. Lowe's force yesterday arrested every proprietor of stores and soft drink stands in Huntsville, West Huntsville and Dallas, where any brand of near beer has been sold. Twenty-three persons were placed under arrest and charges of violating the Alabama prohibition law provision against selling anything that looks like or tastes like beer were entered against them. All made bonds in the sum of $100 each. It is claimed that near beers have been sold openly in suburban stores ever since the prohibition law went into effect and that the dealers have never been molested before. This fact reached the ears of Judge Brickell and he ordered that the law be strictly enforced. Trial of the 23 defendants was set for July 19.

HARDING MAY MAKE FIGHT ON SOLID SOUTH

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 24. (Sp.)—In view of the announcement that the U. S. P. campaign committee has decided to bring Senator Warren Harding, Republican nominee for president, to Atlanta for a speech, the local Republicans are planning to invite him to Chattanooga for a speech. From this decision it looks as if it is really true that the Republicans contemplate an assault on the solid South during the campaign.

Amusements

Loew's Lyceum.

Five strikingly pretty girls, Miss Marion Claire and Gus King, compose the cast in Tom Brown's Musical review, which opens Thursday at Loew's Lyceum. Reports indicate that this is one of the most pretentious instrumental acts now in popular vogue here and it comes as the head of a bill of promise. Miss Claire has a soprano voice of range and flexibility. King is a saxophonist, said to have no superior in variety. The girls offer selections on the violin and sax.

Nick Varga and Gladys Marvin have a new musical comedy skit. Varga has been called the "Newshow caruso." "O, Doctor," is the title of a farcical piece presented by Cleveland and Varga, backed by a quartet of comedians. Myrtle Moore Trio, exponents of the "Gaitie" style of dancing, and Tate and Tate, physical marvels, complete the vaudeville.

A story of the West in the early days with Buck Jones taking the lead is "Forbidden Trails," feature film.

Orpheum.

Jazzland Naval Octette heads the bill at the Orpheum for the last half of the week. The only thing that conquered the United States navy was jazz. Jazz fired a broadside and hit every ship in the fleet in the navy that did not have some form of jazz band, the danger the crew, the larger the band. These shipmates are bringing that portion of the ship where gobs make merry. Alexandria, during the 18 minutes of his act, shows not only musical but verbal syncopation.

Paul Rahn and Kalvin Beck have a pretty little singing novelty called "Echoes From Woodland." Alexander Brothers and Evelyn are the world's greatest ball bouncers. Bender and Mochan in "Drop U's a Line," have a comedy dramatic act. The feature photoplay stars J. Warren Kerrigan in "The Dream Theater." "The Dream Theater" is a dramatic piece, "The Magic Sign" is a Mr. Kerrigan portrays the most dramatic role of his career. The star has assembled a cast of exceptional merit.

M'ADOO BRANDS REPORT HE IS TOO ILL TO RUN

NEW YORK, June 24.—In a written statement yesterday, W. G. McAdoo, branded as false the report of a New York newspaper which declared he would not make the presidential race because of ill health. The statement says: "My attention has just been called to the statement that I have tuberculosis. It is amazing that any reputable newspaper or individual would be guilty of such a wanton falsehood. There is not a shadow of foundation for such a statement. It would be impossible for me to publicly characterize such despicable methods."

BRYAN "TOO BUSY" TO BE NEW PARTY NOMINEE

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 24.—William J. Bryan will not be a candidate of a third party for the presidency, he declared yesterday in commenting on a dispatch from Lincoln, Neb., telling of his endorsement for the presidential nomination by Nebraska members of the committee of 48. Senator Harding's letter, as given out by Mr. Walsh, was dated March 24.

SOUTHERN HARDWARE JOBBERS ARE CITED

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The federal trade commission yesterday cited the Southern Hardware Jobbers' association, with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga., and several of its members, to answer complaints of unfair competition made by certain retail dealers in Georgia. The complainants charged that they were prevented by the association from purchasing supplies of hardware in wholesale quantities after they had formed a co-operative purchasing agency. Forty days are given for the filing of answers.

JUDGE, FREEING REDS, SCORES RAID METHODS

BOSTON, June 24.—Methods used by the federal department of justice in conducting the raids upon alleged alien radicals last winter, were severely scored by Judge George W. Anderson, of the federal district court, yesterday in announcing his decision that 17 persons arrested in the raids and ordered deported, were entitled to be discharged from custody. The defendants had brought their cases before court through habeas corpus proceedings. The deportation of the defendants was ordered by the federal department of labor on the ground that they were members of the communist party. Judge Anderson, in his decision, said there was no evidence to show that the party advocated the overthrow of the United States government by force and violence. The chief dependences of the communists, he said, was upon the pressure of economic force, using the weapon of the general strike and their purpose was rather pacific than militant.

Moving Pictures

Strand.

In "The Dancin' Fool," which will be at the Strand theater all this week, Wallace Reid is cast as a rube who comes to New York and becomes a sensation as a cabaret dancer. Again the breezy player was right in his element. He likes jazz music, and he loves to dance. With attractive Bob Daniels as a partner, he practiced long hours on the studio stage at a series of unique dances that, it is claimed, will prove sensational when shown on the screen.

Majestic.

If you want to abandon for a while the everyday worries about the H. C. of L. strikes, and the like and to be transported into another world of high adventure, pin up your eyes on the sea and land, go to the Majestic theater this week and see Maurice Tourneur's motion picture made from Robert Louis Stevenson's classic "Treasure Island." In a truly remarkable degree this producer has preserved the romantic flavor of Stevenson's novel.

Princess.

In "The Devil's Claim," at the Princess Thursday only, Sessue Hayakawa again proves himself without a peer by his mastery portrayal of Akbar Khan, the Hindu novelist, who is known in the Bohemian quarter of New York as a "mental vampire" because of the manner in which he collects material for his "best sellers." The offering Friday and Saturday will be Anne Cornwall in "Virginia."

Baldness Conquered

A veteran business man, who was almost completely bald and had tried tonics, lotions, shampoos, etc., in vain, came across an Indians' elixir by which he grew a complete crop of healthy hair he now possesses. The hair elixir is called "KOTALKO." Others—men and women—have reported remarkable aid to hair growth, relief from dandruff, cessation of falling hair by using Kotalko.

In a vast number of cases, when hair falls out, the roots are not dead, but remain for some time imbedded in the scalp, like seeds in the soil. The usual hair tonics, etc., are of no avail. The Kotalko method is our secret to awaken the hair and stimulate the growth. It costs so little to try Kotalko it would be a pity to lose the boon which this elixir brings to you.

Wonderful results reported. For men, women's and children's hair. If you are bald, or losing hair, or have dandruff, you should try KOTALKO; it may be what's needed for your scalp and in such case it is a pleasure to observe the starting of new hair and its steady increase until profuse growth. You may obtain a full box of genuine Kotalko at any drug store. Or a proof box will be mailed if you send 10 cents, silver or stamps, to John Hart Brittain, Station F, New York, N. Y.
